Healthcare Regulatory Associate & Counsel

The Charlotte office of McGuireWoods seeks a regulatory Associate & Counsel for the Healthcare Department.

McGuireWoods LLP is actively recruiting a regulatory Counsel to join its nationally ranked healthcare department in its Charlotte office. Our healthcare group and individual lawyers from across the country have been ranked by Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, Legal Elite and Super Lawyers as among the top legal providers in the nation.

Successful candidates will have 3+ years of regulatory experience. We are specifically seeking candidates with experience and an interest in continuing or building a practice around either (i) healthcare information technology/digital health/data privacy and security, or (ii) the Stark law and Anti-Kickback Statute and similar laws and regulations. Candidates with experience in the foregoing with other complimentary areas of experience should also apply. Prior employment in a sophisticated law firm environment and healthcare experience in particular is favored. Excellent academic credentials and solid writing skills are required. Applicants should be admitted to practice in North Carolina.
