Executive Division
Office of the General Counsel – New York City
Associate General Counsel
Reference No. OGC_NYC_AGC_3812

Application Deadline is October 3, 2025

The Executive Division of the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an attorney with in-house counsel and litigation experience for an Associate General Counsel position with the Office of the General Counsel (OGC). Demonstrated experience managing multiple assignments simultaneously, collaborating across teams, and working directly with clients is required.

The Executive Division maintains the functions of OAG and, in addition to OGC, includes the Senior Leadership Team, Chief Deputy Attorneys General, the Solicitor General, and the directors of Communications, Intergovernmental Affairs, Legislative Affairs, and Research and Analytics. The Executive Division's responsibilities include policy development, public relations, community outreach, research and analytics, drafting proposed legislation, monitoring legislation that affects OAG, and the day-to-day administration of the office.

The selected candidate will work for OGC, will report directly to the General Counsel and/or the Deputy General Counsel, and will work out of OAG's New York City office.

Principal Duties:

- Reviewing and/or drafting contracts, procurement documents, and other written OAG materials.
- Crafting, reviewing, revising, and/or approving OAG policies and best practices and ensuring compliance of such policies and best practices.
- Assisting with administrative proceedings and responding to subpoenas.
- Assisting in sensitive employment and labor law matters.

- Providing advice to other units/divisions on a myriad of legal issues.
- Consulting and collaborating with internal and external stakeholders to enhance OAG's ability to execute legal and legislative initiatives that address critical issues facing New York state and its residents.
- Collaborating with senior staff on internal administrative changes, affirmative litigation, and legislative and policy initiatives.
- Assisting in litigation matters and appearing in court/administrative proceedings, as needed.
- Researching and interpreting statutes, rules, regulations, and case law.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.

Qualifications:

- Applicants must have a minimum of five (5) years of relevant experience.
- Prior in-house and litigation experience is required.
- First-rate analytical, research, and writing skills are a must.
- Highly collaborative and client-focused, with demonstrated experience serving a variety of clients and assisting them in achieving their objectives.
- Experience working in a fast-paced and high-impact environment.
- Must have experience in most of the areas as outlined in the principal duties section.
- Knowledge of contract law; labor and employment law; and ethics and compliance is preferred.
- Policy development and legislative experience is a plus.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

The salary range for this position is $83,594 - $178,463 plus $4,000 in location pay. To learn more about Assistant Attorney General compensation, please visit the following page:
