Application Deadline is October 17, 2025

Positions availability in New York City, Albany, Syracuse, or Buffalo

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced prosecutor to serve as the Deputy Bureau Chief of the Public Integrity Bureau (PIB). The Deputy Bureau Chief may work at an OAG office in any of the following locations: New York City, Albany, Syracuse, or Buffalo and will report to the Bureau Chief.

The PIB investigates and seeks to vindicate the public's trust in honest government. When public servants engage in corruption, fraud, or illegal behavior in the course of their public duties, PIB may investigate or take enforcement action to restore the public's interest in honest government and the integrity of government officials at the state and local level. Specifically, PIB handles complex investigations into government contractors, public corruption, fraud, and abuse of authority, from the initial allegation through final disposition.

The PIB Deputy Bureau Chief will also supervise OAG's Real Estate Enforcement Unit (REEU). The REEU investigates and prosecutes cases involving the theft of homes from their owners (deed theft), mortgage fraud, short-sale fraud, tenant harassment, and related frauds committed upon city and state agencies, private citizens, and not-for-profits. Attorneys in REEU also engage with the public and not-for-profits to detect and prosecute all manner of real estate related crimes.

The PIB/REEU consists of attorneys, investigators, auditors, and analysts. Although PIB/REEU is part of the
