

Division of Criminal Justice
Taxpayer Protection Bureau - New York City
Assistant Deputy Attorney General
Reference No. TPB_NYC_AAG_3103

The New York State Office of the Attorney General's (OAG) Taxpayer Protection Bureau, based primarily in New York City, is seeking an experienced litigator to lead and pursue complex civil fraud investigations and litigation, utilizing the New York State False Claims Act and other laws. Cases focus on claims of fraud that victimize the state and local governments, including fraud in procurement programs, taxes, and grant programs. Our investigations regularly involve coordination with other state and federal agencies and with whistleblowers.

Applicants should have substantial experience in the area of civil fraud and white collar investigations, as well as litigation in state and federal courts. Experience with criminal and/or tax matters is a plus.

Candidates must possess excellent analytical, writing, research and organizational skills and a minimum of three (3) years of practical experience.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.
