

Legal Recruitment Bureau

Division of State Counsel
Litigation Bureau – Prisoner Section
Assistant Attorney General - Albany
Reference No. LIT_AAG/PS_ALB_3169

The New York State Office of the Attorney General's (OAG) Litigation Bureau in Albany is seeking attorneys to handle federal litigation commenced by persons incarcerated in New York State prisons. Generally, the Litigation Bureau represents the State of New York and its agencies and officers in state and federal courts in proceedings relating to civil rights, education, social services, public employment, public health, law enforcement, corrections, state finance, insurance, taxation, and other litigated matters arising out of state operations and legislation.

The open position is located within the Bureau's Prisoner Litigation Section where cases present questions of federal constitutional law, and statutory interpretation. Attorneys in the section handle all phases of litigation from pleading to discovery to motions. With satisfactory performance, attorneys in the section can expect to participate in trials, first as a limited second chair handling minor witnesses, with the possibility of advancing to conducting a trial as first chair.

Suitable candidates for this position must possess superior lawyering skills, including research, writing, and legal analysis. Some travel is required.

In addition, it is preferred that applicants have between two (2) and four (4) years of post admission litigation experience and also be admitted to the bar of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.
