AFFORDABLE HOUSING & REAL ESTATE ATTORNEY

Location

New York City

Position Summary

At Nixon Peabody, our priority is to attract, retain and promote talented individuals who have an array of racial, ethnic, social, economic, religious, professional, personal, and other backgrounds. Therefore, we encourage talented individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to apply.

Our Affordable Housing & Real Estate Group is seeking to hire a department attorney to join our New York City office.

Nixon Peabody's growing Cooperative and Condominium Team is seeking an attorney with four to six years' experience drafting offering plans, amendments, no action letters and syndication filings for market-rate and affordable projects primarily in New York state. Qualified candidates should also be familiar with aspects of the planning, development and implementation of cooperative and condominium projects, including the drafting of offering plans and regulatory filings and negotiating transactional documents involving new construction and conversions.

Qualified candidates will be motivated self-starters with stellar academic credentials, superb judgment and communication skills, a commitment to excellence and have the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment.

Nixon Peabody's Affordable Housing & Real Estate Group helps clients structure, negotiate and close complicated real estate and construction transactions with future-focused, business-grounded advice and practical solutions. Our team helps clients maximize and manage their institutional real estate properties and transform development and land use challenges into success stories.

A career at Nixon Peabody is the opportunity to do work that matters. It's a chance to use your knowledge to shape what's ahead. To share, to innovate, to learn at a firm that taps the power of collective thinking.
