The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking a bankruptcy litigator to serve as an Assistant Attorney General in the Litigation Bureau in the New York City office.

The Litigation Bureau represents the State of New York and its agencies and officers in state and federal courts in legal actions and proceedings relating to civil rights, education, social services, public employment, public health, law enforcement, corrections, state finance, insurance, taxation, and other litigated matters arising out of state operations and legislation. The Bureau's cases present a myriad of questions on constitutional law and statutory/regulatory interpretation, including matters of first impression, and generally have significant financial and policy implications for the State.

The selected candidate will represent the interests of the State of New York as creditor or regulator in bankruptcy cases in litigated and non-litigated matters, including as a defendant in adversary proceedings. The Assistant Attorney General may also be called upon to advise, educate, and counsel state agencies on bankruptcy and bankruptcy-related issues and consult with other bureaus of the OAG as the need for specialized bankruptcy expertise arises. On occasion, there may be opportunity to do commercial litigation.

The ideal candidate will have bankruptcy and litigation experience; excellent writing, analytical, and oral advocacy skills; and a demonstrated commitment to public service. Experience with New York State Tax Law and Public Health Law is preferred. Five (5) or more years of bankruptcy experience is required.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to the New York State bar.
