

BERG & ANDROPHY

Junior to Mid-Level Associate Position Available at Trial Boutique

Our New York office is currently looking for a junior or mid-level associate with at least 2 years experience in litigation (either at a law firm, as a judicial clerk or as a prosecutor). Associates at our firm are given significant responsibility early, and we are looking for lawyers who want to become an integral part of a trial team and gain real courtroom experience. We value initiative, judgment and creativity and place an emphasis on teamwork. Candidates must be admitted to the New York bar and have excellent academic credentials.

To apply for this position, please send a cover letter, resume, writing sample, reference list or letter of recommendation and transcript by email to:
