Local Area

Savannah, Georgia is a charming Southern escape where art, period architecture, trendy boutiques and ghost stories are all set under a veil of Spanish moss. Savannah is a place where cuisine comes straight from the coast and cocktails are served at every meal. Separated from South Carolina by the Savannah River, it's known for manicured parks, horse-drawn carriages and antebellum architecture. The historic district is filled with cobblestoned squares and parks such as Forsyth Park, shaded by oak trees covered in Spanish moss. At the center of this picturesque district is the landmark Gothic-Revival Cathedral of Saint John the Baptist. Local activities include art museums such as the Telfair Museum of Art, Girl Scout founder Juliette Gordon Low birthplace, Georgia

State Railroad Museum, SCAD Museum of Art and the Jepson Center for the Arts. Enjoy scenic historic trolley tours, shopping, riverboat cruises or visit a historic landmark such as the Owens-Thomas House, Bonaventure Cemetery, the Wilkes House or the Mercer-Williams House where Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil was filmed.
