

Legal Recruitment Bureau

Division of State Counsel
Litigation Bureau – Albany
Deputy Bureau Chief
Reference No. LIT_ALB_DBC_3232

The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking a candidate for the Deputy Bureau Chief position in the Albany Litigation Bureau. The Deputy Bureau Chief assists the head of the Litigation Bureau, as well as the Bureau's Section Chiefs and Deputy Section Chiefs, in the management and supervision of the Bureau's extensive federal and state court litigation docket and serves as lead attorney on, or otherwise closely oversees, cases in litigation that are of heightened importance to the State of New York. The Albany Litigation Bureau's approximately thirty (30) attorneys represent the State in public law litigation arising in myriad areas of governmental regulation. The Deputy Bureau Chief provides oversight of litigation affecting some or all of the following governmental areas: education, insurance and taxation, health law, mental health and mental disability law, corrections, social welfare law, housing law, and employment/civil rights laws affecting State agencies.

Responsibilities of the position include supervision of Special Counsel; review and assignment of incoming litigation matters, including emergencies; direction of, or assistance with, litigation of complex matters; preparation and/or editing of briefs and motion papers in a variety of matters; making appearances in court; addressing personnel issues; providing advice, training, support and supervision to attorneys and support staff within the Bureau; and serving as a liaison with other bureaus within the OAG and with other state agencies.

Suitable candidates must possess superior writing, analytical, organizational and management skills and have a minimum of ten (10) years of litigation experience in both federal and New York state courts, including the handling of complex litigation matters. Preferred candidates should have a minimum three (3) years of litigation supervisory experience.
