Division of Economic Justice
Antitrust Bureau
Assistant Attorney General – New York City
Reference No. ANT_AAG_NYC_3231

The New York State Office of the Attorney General is seeking an attorney to join its Antitrust Bureau in New York City as an Assistant Attorney General (AAG). The Antitrust Bureau's mission is to enforce federal and state antitrust laws on behalf of New York and its citizens, and to promote and protect the competitive process and the New York economy.

The Antitrust Bureau is engaged in the full range of antitrust issues, including price-fixing, bid-rigging, horizontal and vertical restraints, monopolization, and mergers. The Antitrust Bureau works closely with other state antitrust enforcers on matters of regional or national impact, and with the United States Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

The Antitrust Bureau is comprised of twelve (12) AAGs, a Bureau Chief and Deputy Bureau Chief. AAGs participate in all phases of antitrust investigations and litigation. Primary responsibilities include:

- Drafting subpoenas and information requests to gather evidence;
- Interviewing potential witnesses and targets and taking testimony;
- Reviewing documentary and economic evidence and formulating potential legal theories;
- Drafting discovery requests, pleadings, motions, briefs and other court documents;
- Arguing motions and participating in trials;
- All aspects of electronic discovery;
- Working with economists and other expert witnesses; and
- Negotiating settlements where appropriate.

The applicant must have five (5) or more years of legal experience, a background in antitrust, complex litigation and investigations, and must be a self-starter and team player. The following background and skills are strongly preferred:

- Exceptional writing, analytic, and communication skills;
- Familiarity and experience with antitrust issues;
- Significant deposition experience;
- Trial experience;
- Plaintiff-side antitrust experience;
- A degree in economics and/or strong business and financial literacy;
- Experience with e-discovery technology and process; and
- Proficiency with MS Excel and PowerPoint.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States. A commitment of at least two (2) years is a condition of employment.

OAG employees serve more than 19.85 million state residents through a wide variety of occupations. We offer a comprehensive New York State benefits package, including paid leave, health, dental, vision and retirement benefits, and family-friendly policies. As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State.
