Division of Social Justice
Assistant Attorney General - New York City
Reference No. CHAR/EXEC_AAG_NYC_3238

The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking experienced litigators for its New York City office to serve as Assistant Attorneys General as part of a dedicated team conducting complex investigations and litigation into frauds, breaches of duty and other violations of New York's not-for-profit and charitable solicitation laws.

Applicants should have a minimum of two (2) years of litigation or internal investigations experience, including experience in complex litigation or investigations and electronic discovery.   Applicants must also possess excellent research, analytical, communication, and organizational skills, and write clearly and persuasively. Applicants also should be dedicated, motivated attorneys who have the ability to work independently and interact with a diverse group of colleagues, members of the public and other government regulators.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

OAG employees serve more than 19.85 million state residents through a wide variety of occupations. We offer a comprehensive New York State benefits package, including paid leave, health, dental, vision and retirement benefits, and family-friendly policies. As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State.
