Executive Division Assistant Attorney General – New York City Reference No. EXEC_NYC_AAG_3243

The Executive Division of the New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an Assistant Attorney General with significant litigation experience to serve in the Office of Federal Initiatives in the New York City office. The Office manages and coordinates the litigation of constitutional and administrative law challenges to federal agency rulemaking and other federal agency action, including New York's participation in the federal administrative rulemaking process. Recent matters handled by this Office include New York's challenges to the inclusion of a citizenship question on the decennial census; federal restrictions on access to Title X family-planning grants; the diversion of federal funds to build a border wall; the imposition of immigration-related grant conditions on law enforcement grants; efforts to exempt parts of the health insurance market from the Affordable Care Act's consumer protections; and the rollback of school nutrition guidelines.

Applicants must possess three (3) or more years of experience in complex civil litigation as well as excellent research, writing, and advocacy skills.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

OAG employees serve more than 19.85 million state residents through a wide variety of occupations. We offer a comprehensive New York State benefits package, including paid leave, health, dental, vision and retirement benefits, and family-friendly policies. As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State.
