Division of Social Justice
Environmental Protection Bureau
Assistant Attorney General - Buffalo
Reference No. EPB_AAG_BUF_3242

The application deadline is Monday, October 14, 2019.

The Environmental Protection Bureau in the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced litigator for its Buffalo office. This position would involve representing the State on energy, environmental, and public health matters in litigation before federal and state courts, as well as administrative agencies (e.g., Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, U.S. Department of the Interior, NYS Public Service Commission).

Applicants must have a minimum of five (5) years of experience litigating environmental, energy, or similarly complex statutory cases in federal and state courts and before administrative agencies. The ideal candidate will have litigated affirmative and defensive cases involving judicial review of administrative actions, rulemakings, and adjudicatory proceedings and have experience synthesizing information and building cases concerning public policy or technical areas requiring expert witness testimony. Applicants should identify their experience in energy, environmental, public health and safety, natural resources, land use, and/or commercial cases, particularly as a leader in developing and litigating these types of cases. Excellent writing, research, and critical analytical skills are essential, as is the ability to develop and complete litigation and policy initiatives and filings in a timely manner. Prior experience with electronic discovery and trial preparation platforms is preferred and should be described in the application. Finally, the applicant must demonstrate a commitment to
