PUBLIC FINANCE ASSOCIATE

Location

Rochester, NY

Position Summary

Our Public Finance Practice Group is seeking to hire an associate to join our Project and Public Finance Group in our Rochester, NY office.

The ideal candidate will have one to five years of transactional experience in project or public finance, corporate finance, or real estate. The successful candidate will work primarily with our Project and Public Finance Group and will be involved in a varied and dynamic practice. The attorney's practice will focus on a range of project finance and public finance projects including exempt facilities, waste to energy projects, charter schools, healthcare facilities, higher education facilities and multi-family housing transactions.

Our Public Finance group has a national reputation for innovative work in financing a wide range of municipal and infrastructure projects—from mass transit and hospitals to baseball stadiums, student loans, public power and housing. Qualified candidates will be motivated self-starters with strong academic credentials, superb judgment and communication skills, a commitment to excellence, and will have the ability to thrive in a demanding and fast-paced environment.

At Nixon Peabody, our priority is to attract, retain and promote talented individuals who have an array of racial, ethnic, social, economic, religious, professional, personal, and other backgrounds. Therefore, we encourage talented individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to apply.
