

Transaction and Business Attorney Position at The Towne Law Firm, P.C.

The Towne Law Firm, P.C. ("TLF") is seeking an attorney with 3+ years of experience in business and transactional law in complex commercial merger and acquisition transactions to fill an immediate position in our Albany, New York office. This is a partner track position.

The ideal candidate should have a strong knowledge base in business and transaction law as identified above, pride in their written work, a powerful sense of responsibility, and the ability to think strategically. Familiarity with franchise laws, business regulatory laws and multi-state transactions is a plus.

Candidates must be eager to take initiative, able to work both independently and as part of a collaborative team and perform well under sometimes tight deadlines. TLF is committed to being the catalyst for meaningful hands-on experience with extensive client and transactional opportunities.

Candidates must have bar admission in New York, multi-state admission a plus.

As a general practice law firm, attorneys may also assist on litigation matters as needs arise.

TLF continues its expansion with its office presence in Vermont, Massachusetts, and New Jersey as well as additional offices in eastern New York.

We have a vibrant and expanding practice that seeks attorneys with like-minded goals of pursuing a practice founded in excellent client relations, exciting and diverse practice opportunities and a supportive environment all to provide an unique and rewarding experience.

TLF proudly represents a wide range of respected closely held and publicly traded businesses, including Fortune 250 companies.

The firm combines integrity and professionalism with heart and a sense of humor, creating a caring and collegial work environment where professionalism can flourish. We are dedicated to diversity and inclusion and welcome qualified applicants from all backgrounds. Come join our highly successful team!
