Position Summary

At Nixon Peabody, our priority is to attract, retain and promote talented individuals who have an array of racial, ethnic, social, economic, religious, and personal backgrounds, genders and sexual orientations. Therefore, we encourage talented individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to apply.

Our Health Care Practice Group is seeking to hire a motivated senior-level associate, with flexibility on office location. This is an excellent opportunity to join Nixon Peabody's national health care practice, which has been named "Law Firm of the Year" in Health Care Law by U.S. News and World Report. U.S. News-Best Lawyers also selected Nixon Peabody as the top health care law firm in its 2016 survey. Only one U.S. law firm achieves this top distinction each year.

The ideal candidate will have at least six years of health care regulatory experience working on mergers & acquisitions and other business transactions, such as joint ventures and private equity investments, for health care companies and organizations. Experience with healthcare and/or life sciences transactions is required.

Qualified candidates will be motivated self-starters with stellar academic credentials, superb judgment and communication skills, a commitment to excellence and have the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment.

With 80+ attorneys practicing health care law on a full-time basis in California, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Washington, DC, Nixon Peabody is at the heart of the health care industry. The firm's health care practice works with more than 1,500 clients nationwide including hospitals and health systems, academic medical centers, accountable care organizations, private equity, long-term care facilities, IPAs and medical groups, and other types of providers. We specialize in helping clients manage the ever changing state and federal regulatory environment, evolving health care delivery and payment systems, shifting reimbursement programs, shrinking capital sources and other relentless competitive pressures health care organizations face.

A career at Nixon Peabody is the opportunity to do work that matters. It's a chance to use your knowledge to shape what's ahead. To share, to innovate, to learn at a firm that taps the power of collective thinking.
