Division of State Counsel
Real Property Bureau – Albany
Bureau Chief
Reference No. RPB_ALB_BC_3359

Application Deadline is July 23, 2021

The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced attorney with prior supervisory, transactional and litigation experience to serve as Bureau Chief of the Real Property Bureau (RPB). Employing a team of attorneys, legal assistants, support staff and title searchers, RPB investigates and certifies title, clears liens, and prepares the deeds and various other closing documents necessary to facilitate the acquisition of marketable title for the state's purchase of land. In addition, the Bureau handles all of the state's eminent domain acquisitions by reviewing title, then identifying and certifying all legal interests entitled to compensation and payment for such acquisitions. The Bureau also represents the state in court proceedings involving either disputes over state land titles, or disputes over fair compensation for property acquired by eminent domain. This position will be based in Albany and reports to the Deputy Attorney General for State Counsel.

Qualification for the Bureau Chief position are as follows:

- Candidates must have a minimum of five (5) years of experience supervising other attorneys and legal support staff in both transactional and litigation matters;
- Knowledge of the State land acquisition process as it is required to be followed by client agencies, and of the relevant laws, including the Eminent Domain Proceedings Law, Real Property Law, Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law, and specific agency statutory authority to acquire property is highly desirable;
