Legal Fellows Program

The New York State Unified Court System is offering three one-year Legal Fellowships to law school graduates interested in pursuing a legal career in public service.

Legal Fellows are assigned to work in judicial offices, assisting with legal research and court operations. Assignments offer valuable professional legal experience to new attorneys and expose them to the decision making and court operations.

Assignments are available in courts outside the City of New York. Fellowships are offered on a non-exclusive basis and are renewable for one additional year at the discretion of the Franklin H. Williams Judicial Commission.
