Division of Economic Justice
Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection –
NYC
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. CFP_AAG_NYC_3401

Application Deadline is December 24, 2021

The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is hiring dedicated and motivated attorneys for several Assistant Attorney General positions that are available with the Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection (CFP) in New York City. The CFP is seeking attorneys to join a vibrant enforcement team that is committed to protecting the interests of the most vulnerable New Yorkers from deceptive and fraudulent practices. The Bureau conducts investigations and litigates in a variety of areas involving consumer protection that often have national impact. CFP covers a wide portfolio of consumer issues, with a focus on predatory lending, debt collection, housing, financial services, student lending, telecommunications, and health claims. For example, CFP is a leader in the area of student loans and for-profit educational institutions, including investigating and litigating deceptive practices by for-profit schools and student loan servicers, participating in Department of Education rulemaking and promoting policies at state and federal level to assist student loan borrowers and ensure that they receive the protections to which they are entitled. CFP is also actively involved with mortgage servicing and other housing issues.

Unfair and deceptive trade practices are a serious problem in the United States threatening the proper functioning of the American marketplace. Additionally, these practices have a significant and adverse impact on financially vulnerable consumers and honest businesses costing both billions of dollars each year. CFP enforces consumer
