

Business Litigation - Associate Attorney - Midlevel

Job Description:

Perkins Coie LLP is a leading international law firm and has been listed on Fortune's Best Places to Work for 19 consecutive years. We've created a dynamic firm culture that is based on collaboration, dedication to serving our clients, and mutual respect. We are regularly recognized for our leadership on diversity and inclusion in the legal industry and our dedication to creating a workplace culture where all employees have the opportunity to grow and reach their full potential.

Perkins Coie is seeking a lateral litigation associate with outstanding credentials and a minimum of 3 years of experience in general litigation, which could include judicial clerkship experience. Successful candidates will have excellent academic credentials, superb written and oral communication skills, experience managing large and sophisticated litigation matters, and excellent references.

The commercial litigation practice consists of the representation of a wide range of businesses and individuals in federal and state court proceedings and alternative dispute resolution venues. This is an excellent opportunity to join a collegial environment and work closely with experienced practitioners on a national level.

To apply, please apply online with your cover letter, resume, law school transcripts, references, and a brief writing sample.

Principals only.

About Us

Perkins Coie understands your career is about choices, not trade-offs. We have been named one of the country's "100 Best Places to Work For" by Fortune for nearly two decades. Our attorneys have broad and diverse backgrounds both within and outside the practice of law. By focusing on outstanding client service, superior legal work and generous pro bono and community involvement opportunities, we're dedicated to providing an atmosphere that encourages you to pursue your definition of success--both inside and outside the office.

FIRM CULTURE AND OVERVIEW

We believe that diversity of thought and experience will enrich our dynamic work atmosphere. We have created a company culture that is based on collaboration, devotion to serving our clients and mutual respect. New employees are integrated into the firm through our extensive orientation, new user training and mentorship programs. We are committed to a fair and equitable workplace where each person is a valued member of the team.

Perkins Coie is highly rated for the quality of its client service. This strength stems from two key factors: a strong emphasis on service that starts at the top of the firm and permeates throughout, and an extremely collegial culture that emphasizes collaboration in support of client needs.

Perkins Coie is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or any other category prohibited by local, state or federal law. This policy applies to all aspects of employment, including recruitment, placement, promotion, transfer, demotion, compensation, benefits, social and recreational activities and termination.
