

WE'RE GROWING

Affordable Housing & Real Estate Dept. Attorney

Location

Long Island, New York City, or Washington D.C.

Position Summary

At Nixon Peabody, our priority is to attract, retain, and promote talented individuals from a wide range of racial, ethnic, social, economic, religious, and personal backgrounds, genders and sexual orientations. Therefore, we encourage talented individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to apply.

Our Affordable Housing and Real Estate Group is seeking to hire a non-partner track department attorney to join our Long Island, New York City, or Washington D.C. office.

The ideal candidate will have two to five years of experience working on complex affordable housing or real estate matters. We are seeking a candidate with experience with HUD programs, specifically multifamily, community development and public housing. Knowledge of federal, state and local real property, affordable housing and community development programs and regulations is preferred.

Qualified candidates will have stellar academic credentials, superb communication and writing skills, experience and comfort with a variety of technology and project management approaches, a commitment to excellence and have the desire and ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment.

The attorneys in Nixon Peabody's Affordable Housing practice are among the nation's foremost legal authorities in federally regulated and assisted real estate. Our diverse team of professionals is involved in many of the most sophisticated and substantial regulatory issues and transactions in a national practice.

A career at Nixon Peabody is the opportunity to do work that matters. It's a chance to use your knowledge to shape what's ahead, to innovate, to learn at a firm that taps into the power of collaboration and collective thinking.
