New York State Court System Seeks Applicants for Spanish Interpreters Statewide

NEW YORK—The New York State Unified Court System will be administering the Court Interpreter (Spanish) Exam at test centers statewide on September 9 and September 10, 2022. Online exam applications must be filed by Thursday, August 4, 2022.

Court Interpreters provide spoken language access by converting words and concepts expressed in the spoken English language into Spanish and vice versa in the courtroom and other settings. They also provide sight translation of documents.

Interpreters may perform clerical tasks related to language services. The competitive court interpreter exam is only offered in Spanish. Based on experience and performance, Court Interpreters may advance to supervisory positions such as Senior Court Interpreter (JG–21) and Principal Court Interpreter (JG–23).

- Statewide positions are available
- 2020 starting salary from 57,166 to 61,466 (based on location)
- 20 paid vacation days the first year
- 27 paid vacation days by the seventh year
- 13 paid holidays

To qualify to become a Court Interpreter (Spanish) applicants must, by the last date of the written examination, September 10, 2022, possess a high school diploma or equivalent.

Information about the exam/application process:

Electronic applications can be filed at Exams - Careers | NYCOURTS.GOV

A working e-mail address is required to complete the application process and to receive Admission and Result Notices. Separate applications must be submitted if an applicant is applying for more than one examination. An application is considered successfully filed upon immediate receipt of an Application ID Number.
