Sixty-Year Anniversary of New York's Family Court

WHAT: Hon. Anthony Cannataro, Acting Chief Judge of the NYS Court of Appeals and the State of New York, will join members of New York's bench and bar, child welfare experts and others to commemorate the 60-year anniversary of the State's Family Court, which hears a range of matters involving children and families—from child neglect and abuse to child custody and support, family violence, guardianship, juvenile delinquency and paternity. The event will focus on the impact of changes in the law and society on Family Court cases and operations. Panel discussion topics include children in the Family Court, the expanding concept of family, and racial justice and Family Court.

WHEN: Tuesday, November 1, 2022
11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Court of Appeals Hall
20 Eagle Street, Albany, New York
