Division of Regional Affairs
Extreme Risk Protection Order Unit – Long Island
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. ERPO_NAS_AAG_3534

Application Deadline is January 13, 2023

The New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is hiring a talented and motivated attorney to work on a statewide initiative to protect New Yorkers from gun violence. Recently, Governor Hochul signed Executive Order 19 which directs the New York State Police (NYSP) to file Extreme Risk Protection Orders (ERPOs). The OAG is charged with representing the NYSP in final ERPO hearings held in Supreme Courts throughout the State. ERPOs are a critical part of New York’s efforts to promote public safety and keep its residents safe from gun violence. These positions offer an exciting opportunity to help shape the State’s practice in this new and important area of the law.

The selected attorney will be part of the inaugural cohort of the OAG’s Extreme Risk Protection Order Unit. The attorney will represent the NYSP in obtaining ERPOs, civil court-issued orders pursuant to CPLR Section 6343, that prohibit people who are found to be dangerous to themselves or others from temporarily purchasing or possessing a firearm, rifle, or shotgun. This is a fast-paced practice area, and the attorney will gain experience conducting witness interviews and preparing for testimony, evidentiary hearings and other hearing-related tasks. The attorney will be responsible for identifying and gathering relevant records and preparing witnesses in a compressed timeframe.

The selected attorney will be part of a team of colleagues doing this work throughout the State, sharing experience, training and resources. The attorney will be based at the OAG’s Nassau Regional Office located in Mineola, NY and provide coverage for Nassau and Suffolk Counties. The selected attorney will be hired as an Assistant Attorney General (AAG) and report to the attorney in charge (AAGICs) of the Nassau Regional Office. This position involves regular travel within the Long Island region for court appearances and witness interviews and may include occasional overnight trips.

In addition to their work on ERPO matters, the AAG's duties will include occasionally representing the State in other types of defensive and affirmative litigation. The OAG's Regional Offices represent the State, its agencies and officers in a wide range of federal and state court litigation, affirmative and defensive.

Suitable candidates for the AAG positions must possess the following minimum qualifications:

- At least two (2) years of post-graduate legal experience is required;
- Prior litigation experience is a plus;
- Strong writing, organizational, interpersonal communication and problem-solving skills; and
- A demonstrated commitment to public service.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State through a wide variety of occupations.
