Division of Economic Justice
Investor Protection Bureau - New York City
Senior Enforcement Counsel
Reference No. IPB_NYC_SEC_3551

Application Deadline is April 14, 2023

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced attorney, preferably with securities litigation experience, to lead Investor Protection Bureau (IPB) affirmative litigation matters. IPB, which has both regulatory and enforcement authority, is charged with protecting the public from fraud and misrepresentation in the offering and sale of securities, commodities, franchises and other investment products. IPB evaluates complaints, conducts civil investigations and litigates matters pursuant to New York's securities fraud statute, the Martin Act, and New York's Executive Law. The Senior Enforcement Counsel (SEC) will be responsible for leading IPB's state court actions and summary proceedings and will also be expected to maintain an investigations caseload. The SEC position is located in New York City and reports to the Bureau Chief and Deputy Bureau Chief.

Qualifications for the SEC position are as follows:

- A minimum of ten (10) years of experience litigating fraud, securities fraud or other business activities and financial products in New York State courts.
- Expertise in state court procedure and in the CPLR.
- Experienced in taking and defending depositions and conducting TRO and preliminary injunction hearings, oral arguments and trials.
- Knowledge of the Martin Act, federal securities laws and other states' securities laws.
- Excellent analytical, research, oral advocacy and legal writing skills, including experience editing the writing of other attorneys.
