NEW YORK STATE OFFICE of the ATTORNEY GENERAL

Legal Recruitment

State Counsel Division
Civil Recoveries Bureau – Albany
Assistant Attorney General, Oil Spill Unit
Reference No. CVB/OSU_ALB_ AAG_3905

Application Deadline is October 2, 2026

The State Counsel Division in the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking a litigator with judgment enforcement experience to serve as an Assistant Attorney General in the Oil Spill Unit of the Civil Recoveries Bureau in Albany. The Oil Spill Unit conducts civil litigation, pursuant to Article 12 of the New York Navigation Law, to recover state monies expended to remediate unlawful petroleum discharges that occur within the territorial confines of New York state. Navigation Law cost-recovery claims require review and analysis of complex Department of Environmental Conservation remediation projects. The unit's cases also involve ancillary areas of law such as real property, contracts, bankruptcy, and Surrogate's Court matters.

Duties:

- Handle all phases of litigation, including discovery, depositions, motion practice, and jury trials.
- Conduct all aspects of judgment enforcement, including investigations into the existence and collectability of assets; conducting post-judgment discovery, including depositions of judgment debtors and third parties, and commencing proceedings to recover assets, set aside fraudulent transfers, and obtain assets from judgment debtors or third parties.
- Negotiate resolutions of litigation through settlements and workout agreements.
- Supervise legal assistants and support staff engaged in judgment enforcement activities.
